Watch a short pre-recorded presentation by Homegrown National Parks co-founder and NY Times bestselling author Doug Tallamy that is sure to inspire so many to rethink their home landscapes. After the presentation stay to learn more about the Woodstock Pollinator Pathway and how they are turning inspiration into action to restore pollinator habitat in Woodstock and surrounding communities.

Organized by
Woodstock Land Conservancy,
Woodstock Transition,
and the Woodstock Jewish Congregation

Our events are free and open to all ages.
Donations are welcome and help to support these programs.
