Learning About the Sephardic & Mizrahi Jewish Cultures.

Lunch ‘n Learn

Saturday, December 7

Sponsored by the WJC Men's Group

Come to any or all of these activities:

10am-12pm: Shabbat Services

12-1pm: Lunch - A Mediterranean Feast!

1-2:30pm: Panel Discussion - with WJC Members from Sephardic & Mizrahi families

The vast majority of American Jews are of Ashkenazi descent, their ancestors having come here from Eastern and Central Europe. As such, we often assume that being Jewish means gefilte fish, bagels and Yiddish sayings. But there are other important venerable Jewish cultures from around the world, including Sephardim (Mediterranean/Spanish/Portuguese) and Mizrahi (Middle East/North Africa.)

In this 5th installment of our meaningful “All Of Us” series, we have the pleasure of hearing from some of our own members whose are of Sephardim & Mizrahi origin – to talk about their families, upbringing, culture, customs – and as a special treat we will get to enjoy many delicious Sephardim/Mizrahi delicacies at our communal lunch.

All are Welcome – Come Lunch ‘n Learn with us!

If you like to cook .. feel free to contribute a Sephardic or Mizrahi dish.
