This entire verse from the Book of Daniel equals 5781. It is the only verse in the entire Tanakh that adds up to this total:

וְדִי-חֲזִיֹתָהּ רְגְלָא וְאַצְבָּעֹתָא, מְנַהוֹן (מִנְהוֹן) חֲסַף דִּי-פְחָר וּמְנַהוֹן (וּמְנַהוֹן) פְּרִזְל מְלָכִי
פְּלִיגָה תְהִיגָה, וּמִן-נְצָבְתָא דִּי-פְרִזְלָא לְהוּא-בֵה; כָּל-קְבֵל דִּי חֲזִיֹתָהּ, פְּרִזְלָא מְעָרְב בְּחֲסַף
טִינָא

You also saw that the feet and the toes were partly clay and partly iron. This means that it will be a divided empire. It will have something of the strength of iron, because there was iron mixed with the clay. (Daniel 2:41)

(Daniel is asked to interpret the emperor Nebuchadnezzar's troubling dream. First, Daniel describes the dream:)

Your Majesty, in your vision you saw standing before you a giant statue, bright and shining, and terrifying to look at. Its head was made of the finest gold; its chest and arms were made of silver; its waist and hips of bronze, its legs of iron, and its feet partly of iron and partly of clay. While you were looking at it, a great stone broke loose from a cliff without anyone touching it, struck the iron and clay feet of the statue, and shattered them. At once the iron, clay, bronze, silver, and gold crumbled and became like the dust on a threshing place in summer. The wind carried it all away, leaving not a trace. (Daniel 2:31-35)

(Then, Daniel interprets the dream and explains why the empire will fall:)

You also saw that the feet and the toes were partly clay and partly iron. This means that it will be a divided empire. It will have something of the strength of iron, because there was iron mixed with the clay. The feet—partly iron and partly clay—mean that part of the empire will be strong and part of it weak. You also saw that the iron was mixed with the clay. This means that the rulers of that empire will try to unite their families by intermarriage, but they will not be able to, any more than iron can mix with clay. At the time of those rulers the God of heaven will establish a kingdom that will never end. It will never be conquered, but will completely destroy all those empires and then last forever. (Daniel 2:41-44)

Interestingly, this additional phrase from Daniel adds up to 781:

וְדַנְיָאֵל הֵבִין בְּכָל-חֲזוֹן וְחִלְמוֹת = 781

*V'Daniel heivin b'khol khazon vakhalamot (Daniel 1:17)
And Daniel understood all visions and dreams*

Halleluyah!

Praise YHVH, my soul!

I will praise YHVH as long as I live, I will sing to God all my life.

Don't put your trust in human leaders; no human being can save you.

When they die, they return to the dust, and all their plans die with them.

Happy is the one who has the God of Jacob for a help,

Whose hopeful thought is for the Living One, our God.

The maker of the heavens and the earth, the seas and all they contain,

The world's true guardian,

Who musters justice on behalf of the oppressed;

Who gives bread to the hungry;

YHVH, who sets the captive free;

YHVH, who opens the eyes of the blind;

YHVH, who helps the bent-over to stand upright;

YHVH, who loves the just;

YHVH, who protects the stranger, and in whom the orphan and the widow find their strength,

But by whom the evildoer's route is set awry.

YHVH, who reigns forever, your God O Zion, from generation to generation.

Halleluyah!
