PSALM 23

מִזְמוֹר לְדָוִד יְהוָה רֹעִי לֹא אֶחְסָר:

The Eternal is my shepherd; I lack nothing.
You set me down among the choicest grasses.
You lead me by the calmest waters,
and restore my soul.
You take me along paths of righteousness,
in keeping with the honor of your name.
Even should I wander in the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil, for you are with me.
Your power and support are there to comfort me.
You set in front of me a table in the presence of my enemies.
You anoint my head with oil;
my cup is overflowing.
Surely goodness and loving-kindness will pursue me all the days of my life, and I will come to dwell in the house of the Eternal forever.

WE REMEMBER THEM

At the rising of the sun and at its going down,
we remember them.

At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,
we remember them.

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring,
we remember them.

At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer,
we remember them.

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn,
we remember them.

At the beginning of the year and when it ends,
we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength,
we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart,
we remember them.

When we have joy we crave to share,
we remember them.

When we have decisions that are difficult to make,
we remember them.

When we have achievements that are based on theirs,
we remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live: for they are now a part of us, as we remember them.

Kaddish

Look around us, search above us, below, behind.
We stand in a great web of being joined together.
Let us praise, let us love the life we are lent passing through us in the body of all peoples and our own bodies, let's say amein.
Time flows through us like water.
The past and the dead speak through us.
We breathe our children's children, blessing.
Blessed is the earth from which we grow, blessed the life we are lent,
 blessed the ones who teach us,
 blessed the ones we teach,
 blessed is the word that cannot say the glory that shines through us and remains to shine flowing past distant suns on the way to forever.
Let's say amein.
Blessed is the light, blessed is the darkness but blessed above all else is peace which bears the fruits of knowledge on strong branches, let's say amen.
Peace that bears joy into the world,
 peace that enables love, peace over all people everywhere, blessed and holy is peace, let's say amein.

אלה אזכרה | Eileh Ezkerah

אֵלֶּה אֶזְכָּרָה וְנִפְשִׁי עָלַי אֲשַׁפֵּכָה

Eileh ezk'rah v'nafshi alai eshp'khab

These I remember and pour out my soul.

— PSALM 42:5

THESE WE REMEMBER | אלה אזכרה

These we remember.
Not because suffering is holy,
not because death atones,
not because heaven requires the blood of the innocent.

We remember because a human being is never only a number;
because a name is a world;
because the dead call upon the living to refuse the ease of forgetting.

We remember the sages who taught Torah under threat,
the communities destroyed in cruelty and hatred,
the victims of expulsion, pogrom, genocide, and terror,
the survivors who carried broken worlds within them,
and the rescuers who endangered themselves
so that another person might live.

We remember not to be imprisoned by grief,
but to let grief make us more awake.
We remember not to sanctify death,
but to sanctify life.

Therefore we will not be silent before hatred.
We will not turn away from the vulnerable.
We will not call cruelty inevitable.

We will not make peace with the suffering of another.
Eileh ezk'rah v'nafshi alai eshp'khah
These I remember, and I pour out my soul.
And from remembrance, may we learn again to choose life.

BEARING WITNESS | ELI WIESEL

“For the survivor who chooses to testify, it is clear: his duty is to bear witness for the dead and for the living. He has no right to deprive future generations of a past that belongs to our collective memory. To forget would be not only dangerous but offensive; to forget the dead would be akin to killing them a second time.”

— Elie Wiesel, Night

“I swore never to be silent whenever and wherever human beings endure suffering and humiliation. We must take sides. Neutrality helps the oppressor, never the victim. Silence encourages the tormentor, never the tormented.”

— Elie Wiesel

“What all these victims need above all is to know that they are not alone; that we are not forgetting them, that when their voices are stifled we shall lend them ours, that while their freedom depends on ours, the quality of our freedom depends on theirs.”

— Elie Wiesel

EILEH EZKERAH FOR PITTSBURGH | אלה אזכרה | נוסח פייטסבורג

These things do I remember and my heart is grieved!

How the arrogant have devoured our people!
Who would believe that in our day there would be no intervention
For the eleven slaughtered from our holy community?

That Shabbat morning was like every Shabbat
The twenty early-risers from the three shuls
Came to read Parshat Vayera from the Torah
And they did not know nor could they see in the reflection of God's mystery, That the portion would reveal what would happen to them.

And they read:
And there God tested Abraham And Abraham let the youths rest at the bottom of the hill.
God said to Abraham: Ascend to me on the hill and I will test you there.

What occurred in our Holy Sanctuary that day
As the enemy came to tread upon our holy space
His wielding sword to break apart our memories from that place Among some their faces turned toward the door to welcome new faces Among some they quickly assisted their friends in finding their place in the Siddur
Among some those engaged in Torah Study
And among some who were in the kitchen preparing the next meal.

And to the eleven, God spoke in a whisper
"The time has arrived to sanctify My Name in public.

"And I know you did not ask for this." Even so, they would be remembered and looked upon as personally bound to the Altar as one united.

For in the future their children and congregations would remember
That we are Sanctifiers of Life who come to live
For we arose, we stood as your followers in your path
For we remembered faith and friendship here toward your light.

We buried our bodies.
And upon them we wept
And even so, this did not break us.
Nonetheless we were steadfast in our place
And we continued to stand.

And so, Our Father our King, act for the sake of those who were slaughtered for your holy name.
And act for the babies and children and for all the people of your faith.
Remember us, for we keep You in mind.
Help us, for we prayed to You.

As long as this breath is within us
We ponder the world you created for us And evening and morning, each and every day.

We gather and we cry out as one:
שְׁמַע יִשְׂרָאֵל יְהוָה אֱלֹהֵינוּ יְהוָה אֶחָד:

Hear O Israel, THE ETERNAL our God,
THE ETERNAL is One.

אֵלִי, אֵלִי
שֶׁלֹא יִגְמַר לְעוֹלָם הַחֹל וְהַיָּם
רִשְׁרוּשׁ שֶׁל הַמַּיִם
בְּרַק הַשָּׁמַיִם
תְּפִלַּת הָאָדָם:

Eili, Eili
Shelo yigamer l'olam
Hakhol v'hayam
Rishrush shel ha'mayim
Berak ha'shamayim
Tefilat ha'adam.

My God, my God, I pray that these things never end.

The sand and the sea, the rush of the waters,
The crash of the heavens, the prayer of the heart.

The sand and the sea, the rush of the waters,
The crash of the heavens, the prayer of the heart.

— HANNAH SENESH

(We take some time in silence together for personal prayer and meditation.)

EL MALEI RACHAMIM FOR A POST OCTOBER 7 WORLD

אל מלא רחמים

God full of mercy,
Womb of the world,
In whom there is room enough for all life to flourish
From whom there is blessing enough
For all life to be nourished –
We call out to You, broken-hearted.

שוכן במרומים

You who dwell on High Beyond the borders of loyalty and love that make us human – Hearing what we cannot Holding what we cannot Healing what we cannot – Help us.

המצא מנוחה נכונה תחת כנפי השכינה

Grant perfect rest
Beneath the wings of Your Presence
To the precious innocent souls –
Israeli and Palestinian,
Jewish and Muslim,
Christian, Bedouin, and Druze, migrant workers from around the world –
Who have lost their lives to the ravages of war
during this past year.
Shelter those who witnessed unspeakable brutality,
And whose walls could not protect them.
Carry those who were caught or cornered,

unable to escape destruction, degradation, despair.
Lift up those who searched for sustenance or safety, longing for the embrace of home.

במעלות קדושים וטהורים כזוהר הרקיע מזהירים

May those souls who are with you now be granted a glimpse of the world as You see it – shimmering everywhere with the light of Your presence.

בגן עדן תהא מנוחתם

May they find rest and comfort
In Your holy Garden.

אנא בעל הרחמים

Please, O Master of Mercy

הסתיריהם בסתר כנפך לעולמים וצרור בצרור החיים את נשמותיהם

Hide them
beneath the cover of Your wings, forever,
And let their souls be bound up with ours,
Summoning us all to righteousness
And hope renewed.

יי הוא נחלתם וינוחו בשלום על משכבם

May Your unending love be their inheritance.
May their eternal resting place be Your peace.

And let us say: Amen.
